If you are enrolled as a graduate or professional school student at the University of Pittsburgh and want to apply for a student loan, this information is for you. The general process and forms you will need to complete for the 2014-15 academic year are explained below.

While there is no deadline to apply, the priority application-filing date for the 2014-15 school year is June 1, 2014.

For more information about loan programs available to graduate and professional school students, please visit: www.oafa.pitt.edu/learn-about-aid/applying-for-aid/graduate-school-instructions.

1. Financial Aid Application Supplement (FAAS)
   - Complete the University of Pittsburgh Financial Aid Application Supplement (FAAS). The FAAS is available on the web at www.oafa.pitt.edu/learn-about-aid. The FAAS must be signed by your graduate school representative and should be returned to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid.

2. Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
   - Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). If you completed the FAFSA process for the 2013-14 school year, some information on your 2014-15 FAFSA can be “pre-filled” with prior year’s data. Go to www.fafsa.ed.gov to complete the 2014-15 FAFSA process. You will need your federal PIN number to access your FAFSA record on line.
   - If you are required to file a 2013 US Income Tax Return with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), it is recommended that you complete that process before filling out the FAFSA. If you have not completed your tax return yet, you can submit your FAFSA using estimated tax information and correct that information after you file your return.
   - The easiest way to have correct information on your FAFSA is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, available through www.fafsa.ed.gov. In a few simple steps, you may be able to view your tax return information and transfer it directly to your FAFSA.
   - Be sure to indicate that the results should be sent to the University of Pittsburgh. The University of Pittsburgh federal school code is 008815.
   - Priority Deadline: June 1, 2014.

The 2014-15 FAFSA will be available on the web beginning January 2, 2014.

3. Student Aid Report (SAR)
   - After you complete your 2014-15 FAFSA, you will electronically receive a Student Aid Report (SAR) directly from the federal processor. In addition the results of your processed FAFSA will be sent to the University of Pittsburgh.
   - Please review your SAR for accuracy. If any of the information is incorrect or incomplete, please correct the information, following the instruction provided with the SAR.
   - If you do not receive a SAR electronically from the federal processor, you should contact the federal processing center directly for assistance at 1-800-433-3243.

4. Direct Stafford Loans
   - Direct Grad PLUS Loans
   - Private Alternative Loans

Based on the results of your FAFSA, the Financial Aid Office at the University of Pittsburgh will automatically consider you for a Direct Stafford Loan and notify you of your eligibility via a student financial aid award letter. In addition, the Financial Aid Office will send your loan eligibility information to the US Department of Education. We will assume that you want to borrow the maximum loan for which you are eligible for both semesters of the academic year. If you decide not to borrow or want to borrow less than this maximum, you will need to complete a loan adjustment form or acceptance form at the web address above, and send it to the Financial Aid Office. Once we receive this form, we will cancel or adjust your loan according to your request. You will be notified in writing that the change has been made.

The interest subsidy for graduate and professional students has been eliminated per the Budget Control Act of 2011. All Stafford loans for graduate and professional students will be unsubsidized. For more information about federal educational loans, including interest rates and origination fees, please refer to the federal student aid website at studentaid.ed.gov/types/loans.

The US Department of Education will be your guarantee and servicing agency when you enroll at the University of Pittsburgh.
The federal Graduate PLUS Loan program enables graduate students with good credit histories and a need for funding beyond the Stafford Loan program to borrow money to pay education expenses. Graduate students considering this option must enroll on at least a half-time basis in a degree seeking program, and be making satisfactory academic progress. For more information about the PLUS loan and application instructions, please visit www.oafa.pitt.edu/learn-about-aid/available-aid-programs.

If you are a first-time borrower, you will need to complete both an Entrance Interview and a Master Promissory Note before your Direct Loan can be disbursed to you. Completing your Entrance Interview and Master Promissory Note will help insure that you receive your loan funds on a timely basis. Both of these can be completed online at www.studentloans.gov.

PRIVATE ALTERNATIVE LOANS
Students and their families can borrow additional loan funds to help meet their college costs using Alternative Loan programs. These credit based programs are provided by commercial lenders and are not supported by state or federal financial aid funds. Some alternative loans may require interest payments while the student is enrolled in school. More information concerning alternative loans can be found at www.oafa.pitt.edu/learn-about-aid/available-aid-programs/alternative-loans.

5. Financial Verification and Other Financial Aid
In applying for financial aid, you agree to provide any additional financial and other pertinent information to this Office to document your eligibility, if requested. The University reserves the right to review this information and, if necessary, to adjust approved student loan amounts made based on inaccurate or incomplete information at the time corrected information is received. If you receive financial aid from other sources, you are required to report this information to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. Other sources include, but are not limited to, tuition remission, teaching assistantships or fellowships, departmental scholarships or grants and other outside private grants and scholarships. If the total of your financial aid exceeds your demonstrated federal student aid eligibility, (or, in some cases, the total cost of education) the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid may be required to reduce or cancel loan funds approved for you.

6. Satisfactory Academic Progress
You are required to make satisfactory academic progress and remain in good academic standing with the University in order to retain your eligibility for financial aid. An annual evaluation is made of your academic performance. If you are denied financial aid because of failure to make academic progress, you have the right to appeal through your Dean’s Office. Specific guidelines and information concerning academic progress are available at our website at www.oafa.pitt.edu/learn-about-aid/satisfactory-academic-progress.
